

World Hepatitis-Day was celebrated at CH/GRC on 28th July 2025 as part of NVHCP, where aim of the program is to combat hepatitis and achieve countrywide elimination of Hepatitis C by 2030, achieve significant reduction in the infected population, morbidity and mortality associated with Hepatitis B and C.

The symposium was held where the speakers enlightened about Viral Hepatitis and disseminated knowledge to update participants on the latest research and advancements, and improve their understanding of the topic.

Discussion was on different aspects of Chronic viral hepatitis...starting from Virus structure, different clinical presentations, guidelines of recent management with antivirals, prevention both pre and post exposure, and surgery in a seropositive patient.

Dr. A K. Malhotra, Pr. Chief Consultant (Surg.), also enlightened regarding needle prick injury for health care workers.

SCOPE OF DISCUSSION

- Introduction – Dr Priyanka Mondal, DMO (Med)
- Related Microbiology – Dr R P Dhanwar, ACHD (Micro)
- Clinical Features – Dr Priyanka Mondal, DMO (Med)
- Management – Dr Pramit Saha, DMO (Med)
- Prophylaxis – Dr Isha Ghosh, Senior Resident (Med)
- Surgery in Sero-positive Patients – Dr N S Hari, Senior Resident (Surg)

