

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT CKP DIVISION

Chakradharpur is one of the four divisional headquarters of the South Eastern Railway. It is located on the Tatanagar–Bilaspur section of the Howrah-Nagpur-Mumbai line.

Chakradharpur division serves the mineral and industrially rich areas of Jharkhand and Odisha. It has uniqueness of being one of the major loading divisions of Indian Railways and simultaneously an important coaching operative with Howrah – Mumbai main line, operation between TATA-JSG and originating coaching trains from TATA, ROU & JSG. And to confront with the prompt availability of wagons required for loading by various sidings as well as up keeping of the coaching trains; Mechanical Department of Chakradharpur Division has strived for preeminence in each sector. The unprecedented workforce of Mechanical Department has enabled the South Eastern Railway to culminate in loading and freight operation year by year.

The department head is Sr.DME/CKP who is assisted by DME/CKP in Division Office with 01 Sr.CDO at TATA Depot and 01 CDO at ROU/BNDM Depot including 05 ADME's at TATA, ADTP, DPS, BNDM & CKP Depots. Furthermore, 214 Nos. of SSE/JE's, 2508 Nos. of Technicians, Helpers and other ancillary staffs; with 56 Nos. of Ministerial staff comprises the team of Mechanical Department in CKP Division.

The organization chart is as follows:

